

Subject ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

By checking this box in my course registration I herewith acknowledge the following:

- That there are certain risks inherent to travel and taking part in the activities as part of this programme, including the risk of injury, disease or other threat or physical harm to myself or others, as well as theft of or damage to personal property, and I fully accept those risks.
- That The Hague Academy for Local Governance is not responsible for any harm that may occur, and I fully release and discharge THA, its employees and associate experts from all liability or claims in connection with my participation in this programme.
- That a representative of The Hague Academy for Local Governance has the right to refuse admittance to the training course, without any right to compensation if he/she deems it necessary for the best interests of the training programme activities and its participants.
